HONG KONG

NATIONALS SUPPORT PROGRAMME

VSCE BN(O) PROJECT

A new project to help Hong Kong nationals to become more integrated and adjusted to living in London, in order to study and/or gain employment and build their careers based on their existing skills.

The project aims to make a substantial difference to participants' lives, by helping them obtain employment, gain a sense of confidence, and feel recognition for their contribution to the London setting.

The project is funded by the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities.

Our charity offers a whole-person approach to personal and skills development; recognising existing skills and experience so that people can feel safe, empowered, confident to return to work in jobs and professions that they had previously trained in, thus supporting job sustainability.

The aim of the project is to provide targeted support to address those complex barriers faced by working-age Hong Kong nationals in seeking and obtaining employment.
